10 Key Questions for your organisation about preventing gambling harm

This tool is intended for organisations and groups that are a part of the All-In Gambling Prevention Project.

These questions have been developed to guide you in a discussion about your organisation's readiness for action. Examining these questions will provide some ideas of where your organisation can make a difference and where to focus the actions you can take.

Further information about this project, the impact of gambling harm and potential actions can be found in the All-In Project Action Guide.

Answering these questions can be undertaken by an individual interested in this issue or by a group of people, it is up to you. The All-In Project Officer can provide support and guidance with this process.
